

NO COMPROMISE

A company grade officer (CGO) in a training program received non-judicial punishment for fraternization with a permanent party junior enlisted member involved in a training support role. The misconduct was discovered when the CGO's civilian girlfriend reported that she had found the CGO in a sexually compromising position with the junior enlisted member.

NOTE

The Air Force Core Value of EXCELLENCE IN ALL WE DO means individual commitment to discipline and upholding the highest of personal and professional standards.

Investigation revealed that the junior enlisted member referred to the CGO and other student officers as her "friends," that she slept at their residence after parties, and that the inappropriately familiar relationship between the CGO and junior enlisted member lasted for approximately nine months.

WARNING

Fraternization violates Article 134 of the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ) and carries a maximum punishment of dismissal, forfeiture of all pay and allowances, and confinement for two years.

As punishment, the CGO forfeited $1,000 pay per month for two months, with one month's forfeitures suspended.
