

NOT WORTH IT

A field grade officer (FGO) assigned to a flying training squadron received non-judicial punishment for creating a false non-availability letter for lodging during a Temporary Duty.

NOTE

The Air Force Core Value of INTEGRITY FIRST is the compass that keeps us on the right path when confronted with ethical challenges and personal temptations.

The non-availability letter resulted in the FGO receiving an overpayment of more than $550.

WARNING

The FGO was charged with violating Article 132 of the Uniform Code of Military Justice, FRAUDS AGAINST THE UNITED STATES.

As punishment, the FGO forfeited $500 pay per month for two months.
