

HERITAGE TODAY POSTER SERIES

"COMMITMENT" Photos/Memorabilia Descriptions

PURPOSE

Provide a description of the vintage photos and items depicted in the Heritage Today poster series.

DESCRIPTION

Heritage Today poster series inspire and challenge Airmen with stories of Air Force heritage and emphasize the Core Values by using the enabler characteristics of character, judgment, and commitment as the building blocks of professionalism.

The accompanying vintage photos and items add to the human-connection and emotions of the time.

EMPLOY

When viewing the Heritage Today posters, think of the individuals depicted in the photos as well as the accompanying historic artifacts. Imagine how it must have been during those times of conflict and how our Air Force Core Values and the Profession of Arms allowed them to remain strong and honorable.

The gold metal item depicted is an Army officer insignia that adopted from the Great Seal of the United States; by 1903 this had replaced all branch insignia worn on hats. The round item with white star and red dot is an aircraft roundel used 1926-1941. This design was then abandoned because the red circle was similar to the Japanese "meatball," and caused miss-identification.
